

Labor Resources for Job Seekers Now Available

If you are currently looking for day labor or temporary job opportunities, we have the answers to help you with your needs. One of the great things about being a day laborer is having the chance to experience a variety of different jobs, which can be helpful when trying to decide on a career path. Finding a day labor job is easy. It's just a matter of knowing where to look. We can help you with preparing for the position you are looking for. Here are some steps to consider when working for day labor/temporary employment positions.

Step 1

Visit or call the Satellite Office for details to finding the right job for you, temporary to permanent positions, or a career pathway. We can assist you with resume building, interviewing tips, marketing your skills and more. Call: 701-751-2928, ask for Yvette.

Step 2

Plan to complete the required worker application. Submit the application along with government issued photo identification and proof of employment eligibility. It also helps to submit a professional resume that reflects your special skills, qualifications and work history. If you don't know how to create a resume we can assist you.

Step 3

Plan to complete a job interview with a day labor representative. The representative will ask questions to determine if there are jobs available that match your skills. Plan to take a skills assessment to verify your labor skills. Once your job skills are verified, your name is placed into the agency's available job seeker database.

Step 4

Plan to stay in contact with the area representative or visit the day labor agency each day to find temporary job assignments, or create a profile where you can log in automatically and scan open jobs.

Step 5

Attend the job assignment on the date and time you are scheduled. It is a good idea to locate the job site the day before to see how long it will take you to arrive, plan to arrive early to perform your job with excellence. If the employer is impressed with your job performance, it is possible for a day labor/temporary assignment to turn into a permanent position. Once your job assignment is complete remember to thank everyone for the opportunity and leave them with a good impression.
